<sup>2</sup>Students planning to transfer to a school requiring a foreign language will be advised to take two terms of intermediate foreign language as their humanities elective. For appropriate transfer credit, these courses should be taken in consultation with an advisor.

<sup>3</sup>One of the directed electives must be a second social science course. If a student has not already satisfied the College's American Diversity requirement by taking SOC 101 or another course, then one of these directed electives must meet that requirement.

<sup>4</sup>A student aiming to take ENGL 282 – Scriptwriting is encouraged to take the prerequisite course ENGL 205 Creative Writing as one of the two required humanities electives, in consultation with his/her advisor.
