

Liberal Arts – Social/ Behavioral Science Option

The Liberal Arts degree program is for liberal arts students planning to transfer to baccalaureate programs or professional schools after study at Community College of Philadelphia; for students seeking a non-specialized associate's degree; for students planning to enter certain select programs at a later date; and for students undecided about their long-term educational goals. Students are expected to consult with an academic advisor or counselor upon entry to the program and in subsequent semesters. Transfer planning should begin early so that the student can gain the most benefit from the curriculum. Students who follow the Liberal Arts curriculum and plan to attend a specific four-year college after graduation should choose elective courses that duplicate as closely as possible those in the first two years of the program of that college.

The Social/Behavioral Science Option is appropriate for students who wish to emphasize social science fields, whether for personal interest or with the goal of transfer to major in such subjects as sociology, social work, counseling, psychology, urban studies, political science, geography, anthropology, economics, history, pre-law or related fields.

Note: Many, but not all, transfer institutions require some knowledge of a foreign language (from one semester to two years of study at the college level or the equivalent.) Some accept American Sign Language and some allow non-native speakers of English to count proficiency in their primary language, or to count English as their language (as does the College). Students planning to transfer should be aware of foreign language requirements which may affect their acceptance into certain colleges and programs.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES:

Upon completion of this program graduates will be able to:

- Demonstrate critical analysis of arguments and evaluation of an argument's major assertions, its background assumptions and the evidence used to support its assertions.
- Communicate effectively through written and oral means including essays, research papers and classroom presentations.
- Understand principles of human behavior and social structures.
- Understand how the scientific method is used to study human behavior and social structures.

PROGRAM ENTRY REQUIREMENTS:

Students are typically required to take the College's placement tests at their time of entry. Students identified as needing developmental course work must satisfactorily complete the appropriate English and mathematics courses as a part of their degree program.

PROGRAM OF STUDY AND GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS:

To qualify for the Associate in Arts (A.A.) degree in Liberal Arts, a student must complete a minimum of 61 credit hours as prescribed and attain a grade point average of 2.0 ("C" average).

General Education Requirements

All General Education requirements are met through required courses (as indicated above) except for the Interpretive Studies, Writing Intensive and Am/Global Diversity requirements. Therefore, in order to graduate, students in this program must choose one course that is designated Interpretive Studies, one course that is designated Writing Intensive, and one course that is designated American Diversity and two courses designated Global Diversity. The same course may be used to fulfill more than one of these requirements. A list of courses that fulfill these requirements and a more detailed explanation of the College's general education requirements appear elsewhere in this Catalog and on www.ccp.edu.

* Students with computer skills may apply for credit by exam through the Computer Technologies Department.
