

BACHELOR'S IN HEALTH ARTS DEGREE AT USF

AAS in Diagnostic Medical Imaging from Community College of Philadelphia	69 semester hours
Professional Experience Credit	16 semester hours. Students must complete 24 months of professional experience acquired beyond the first 12 months of full-time employment in radiography. This may be obtained concurrently with USF program enrollment.
College/Experience Credit	11 semester hours—Can be completed in the following ways: Community College credit: Coursework completed with a “C” or better. Maximum of 11 semester hours. Senior College/ University Credit: Coursework completed with a “C” or better from any accredited senior college or university. Maximum of 11 semester hours. Second Certification: Additional ARRT certification in Therapy, Nuclear Medicine or Ultrasound. Maximum of 11 semester hours. Advance Level Examinations: ARRT examinations such as Mammography, etc., may be awarded 3 to 5 semester hours each, depending on modality. Clinical Experience Proficiency Credit: A maximum of 11 semester hours may be awarded for the first 12 months of full-time employment in radiography. Life Experience Credit: A maximum of 11 semester hours may be obtained for learning and/or work experiences beyond radiography experience. A counselor will assist in developing a portfolio documenting these experiences toward equivalent courses. A portfolio fee is required for assessment.
USF Required Coursework, 4 courses	16 semester hours: Ethics and Morality Writing for the Professional Cultural Anthropology Principles of Healthcare Management
USF Elective Coursework, 4 courses	16 semester hours. Recommend one course from each of the following areas: Philosophical and Religious Studies: Philosophy and Modern Society Religion in America World Religions Historical and Cultural Studies: Western Civilization U.S. in World Affairs U.S. History since 1865 Literary and Aesthetic Studies: American Literature College Composition Exploring the Fine Arts Selected World Literature Upper Division Elective: Computers in Healthcare Management Managerial Communications in Healthcare  Other courses may be substituted with the approval of USF.
Total semester hours required for degree	128 semester hours