Community College of Philadelphia

ON BEHALF OF Community College of Philadelphia's Board of Trustees and the College community, welcome to Commencement 2020. At this most important and joyous ceremony of the academic year, we acknowledge our students' academic achievements and reaffirm the continuing vitality of our College.

The granting of degrees and certificates is celebrated through long-standing traditions. It is a time to celebrate achievements and reflect on the opportunities ahead. This year's Commencement in particular celebrates the tenacity and resilience of our students as they navigated through unprecedented challenges to complete their education. More than half of the Class of 2020 graduated with honors, which is a major milestone that the College is proud to celebrate.

Commencement also recognizes our outstanding faculty and staff who have devoted their time and energy to helping students achieve this significant milestone. Participation in the Commencement exercise is a momentous experience for graduates, as well as for families and friends who support students on their academic journey. It is a fitting finale to years of hard work and sacrifice.

Congratulations to the 2020 graduating class. Thank you for choosing Community College of Philadelphia as your alma mater, and for joining us for this memorable and happy occasion. I wish you the best in your future endeavors.

Sincerely,

Donald Guy General, Ed.D.

Academic Regalia

THE COLORFUL REGALIA worn by academicians is steeped in tradition, dating back to the ecclesiastical garb of the Middle Ages. Adaptations from ecclesiastical to academic dress began in early European universities, which were founded by the church. University faculty and students wore the adapted robes for distinction and warmth. The University of Cambridge is cited as the first to use the academic gown.

Representatives of American universities met in the early 1890s and agreed upon a standard style of academic attire. The Intercollegiate Code, revised in 1932 and again in 1959, is followed today by American colleges and universities, except for a few schools, which continue to use the styles of England.

Gowns are traditionally black; however, some colleges and universities have authorized use of a color symbolic of the institution. Associate and bachelor's gowns have pointed sleeves and are designed to be worn closed. Master's and specialist gowns have long, closed sleeves with an arc near the bottom and an opening for the arm. Doctoral gowns are faced with wide velvet panels and have bell-shaped sleeves with three horizontal velvet bars.

Caps, originally round, are typically square mortarboards. Some universities have adopted a doctor's cap, which traditionally has a gold tassel, with a soft crown instead of the mortarboard.

TASSELS

At Community College of Philadelphia, the tassel worn by students signifies the type of degree or certificate being presented: Associate in Arts – white, Associate in Applied Science – dark green, Associate in Science – brown, Certificates – dark blue.

HOODS

Hoods, which originally were attached to the gown and could be slipped over the head for warmth, are the most colorful articles of clothing for specialist, master's and doctoral recipients. The color of the lining of the hood represents the university awarding the degree. The color of the facing of the hood reflects the academic discipline of the wearer's highest degree.

Colors that may be seen among the marching faculty and their corresponding fields of study include: brown (fine arts), crimson (journalism), dark blue (philosophy), golden yellow (science), lemon yellow (library science), light blue (education), yellow-brown (commerce, business, accountancy), pink (music), purple (law), sage green (physical education), scarlet (theology) and white (arts, letters, humanities).

THE MACE

The ceremonial mace, a symbol of academic scholarship and integrity since the 11th century, is used to lead the academic procession at commencement and other special ceremonial occasions, signifying the importance of the event and the conformation of the academic process.

Ceremonial maces derive from maces used as weapons in the Middle Ages. The first maces were a heavy staff or club, made wholly or partly of metal and often spiked, and were used to break armor. The earliest ceremonial maces are believed to have been carried by sergeants-at-arms who protected kings in France and Germany. Over the centuries, maces became more decorative and symbolic. Maces are part of ceremonial traditions in the U.S. House of Representatives and the British House of Commons.

The tradition at Community College of Philadelphia's Commencement exercises is to honor a senior faculty member by being named the Mace Bearer. This honor may go to a retiring faculty member, or as is the case this year, to a past winner of the Christian R. and Mary F. Lindback Foundation Award for Excellence in Teaching.

GONFALONS

The gonfalons – or banners – are a recent addition to Community College of Philadelphia's Commencement exercises. The gonfalon is a long banner that is suspended from a crossbar. The name derives from medieval Italy, where “gonfaloni” was the name given to community meetings in Florence. Each neighborhood had its own flag and coat of arms, and the word gonfalon eventually came to be associated with the flag.

At Community College of Philadelphia, each degree type has its gonfalon and the “gonfalonieres” – the carriers of the banners – precede the candidates for each degree type during the processional into the arena. The gonfalon bearer is an honor accorded to a member of the faculty from a department offering that degree type. The colors associated with each degree type mirror the tassel color worn by the degree candidates.

Keynote Speaker

JOANNA McCLINTON, ESQUIRE, took the oath of office to serve the people of the 191st Legislative District on Aug. 25, 2015, after winning a special election two weeks prior. In November 2018, she became the first African-American and woman to be elected as the House Democratic Caucus chair for the 2019–20 legislative session. In November of 2020, Representative McClinton was elected to be the House Democratic Leader for the 2021–2022 legislative Session, making her the only Black woman to ever hold a party leadership position in Harrisburg. The election to the Pennsylvania House of Representatives continues Rep. McClinton’s lifelong devotion to bettering the lives of others.

A lifelong resident of southwest Philadelphia and graduate of Grace Temple Christian Academy, she became active in the community while completing a two-year internship with the radio station WDAS. Later, she studied Political Science and Leadership in Global Understanding at La Salle University, where she was a Dean’s List student, student leader and neighborhood tutor.

Immediately after graduating from La Salle, she enrolled at Villanova University School of Law, where she used her legal training to serve the public. She was an intern at Regional Housing Legal Services, the Philadelphia District Attorney’s Office and the Defender Association of Philadelphia.

She was an assistant public defender for seven years. She became the assistant chief of the East Zone during her last year at the public defender’s office and helped attorneys with case preparation.

In 2013, Rep. McClinton combined her passion for the community and love of the law by becoming chief counsel to state Sen. Anthony Hardy Williams. She worked behind the scenes in the senator’s Harrisburg and Philadelphia offices, developing policy and legislation. She also organized expungement fairs and public policy forums, and helped constituents with problems.

Rep. McClinton is active in the community. She was a youth leader at her West Philadelphia home church, Open Door Mission, for more than 10 years. As a youth ministry leader, she organized positive programs for children, mentoring them and reminding them that their dreams can come true. She is a volunteer with Outreach to Youth and Hands of Compassion American Sign Language Ministry. She was an elected Board Member of the La Salle University Alumni Association Board of Directors, where she helped initiate the Minority Alumni Advisory Group. She has served as the secretary of the Philadelphia Barrister’s Association, the city’s bar association of African American attorneys and as president of the La Salle University African American Alumni Association.

Rep. McClinton has been acknowledged for her commitment to public service and enhancing the quality of life for residents in Philadelphia and Delaware Counties by receiving several awards. They include City and State PA’s 40 Under 40; the Barristers’ Association of Philadelphia’s Outstanding Young Lawyer of the Year award; Successful Women Achieving Goals’ Women of the Year award; FunTimes Magazine’s Women of Influence award; the PRE-K for PA Champion award; the Spirit of a Dove Community Servant award; the Lucien E. Blackwell Guiding Light Community award; and the Black Gala Women of Excellence award.

Honors

Honor students are indicated by the following symbols:

- Honor
- High Honor
- Highest Honor

Honor students are selected based on their academic records as of the end of Fall Semester 2019. It is possible that final assessment of grades may change some of these standings and that other names may be added. Such additions will be noted on transcripts and diplomas.

Students graduating with Highest Honor have attained a cumulative grade point average of 3.8. Students graduating with High Honor have attained a cumulative grade point average of 3.5. Students graduating with Honor have attained a cumulative grade point average of 3.2. Honor students are acknowledged by the wearing of Honor Cords around their necks. Students graduating with Highest Honor wear a triple-braided strand of gold, blue and white; students graduating with High Honor wear a double strand of blue and white; and students graduating with Honor wear a double strand of gold. Students wearing gold stoles are members of Phi Theta Kappa, the International Honor Society for community colleges. Students wearing sapphire blue stoles are members of Alpha Beta Gamma, the International Business Honor Society for community colleges. Students wearing dark blue stoles are members of Delta Psi Omega National Theatre Honor Society. Also, wearing distinctive red, white and blue cords are graduates who are veterans having served honorably.

Community College of Philadelphia reserves the right to add or withdraw names from the list of candidates for associate degrees and certificates since final action cannot be taken before this program goes to press.
